

Sarah from the Green (Again)

Sarah from the Green wearing pink and looking pretty
Sitting chatting to the squaddie on the Friday Intercity
Our duty-free discussion turns to my generation's mission
With a shadow in our hearts we pursue the conversation about a war
Do you want a war?

You support humanitarian issues
Dry your eyes on man-size tissues
We all got social worker blood in our veins
Just that some get blue and some get the needle with a war
Do you want a war?
